REMEMBERING SRI LANKA

On Thursday May 2nd there will be a mass in St Peter's Church, London Road at 6.00pm to remember the victims of the Easter Sunday bombings in Sri Lanka. It will be an occasion when, as a parish, school and wider community, we will be able to join with those from Sri Lanka living in Gloucester in remembering their fellow country men, women and children who have been killed, injured and bereaved in this terrible atrocity.

MAY PROCESSION – TUESDAY 7th MAY at 2.30pm PLEASE NOTE THE DATE CHANGE

On Tuesday 7th May we will be holding our May Procession at 2:30pm. All children are encouraged to bring in a flower or flowers to place around Mary. Flowers can also be handmade as well as fresh. We look forward to seeing you.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

We congratulate Daniel in 4EI and Joshua in 4SD who made their First Holy Communion during the Easter holiday in India.

FIRST CONFESSION – THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

This evening, 52 of our children will be receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Our prayers are with them and their families at this special time.

ATTENDANCE

We have made a huge improvement to our pupils' attendance in school this academic year – so a big 'thank you' to everyone. Attending school every day is very important for your child's learning and development and being on time for '5 to 9' is a good life skill. Just a quick reminder that our Attendance Policy can be found on the school website. Any unauthorised absences may be referred to the Education Inclusion Service where they may issue a fixed penalty fine of £60 per parent per child.

LEARNING GEMS

Congratulations to Haren in RJB for achieving a Diamond Power Award for solving problems and showing responsibility.

SCHOOL UNIFORM

We ask all parents to support us by ensuring that your child/ren are dressed in the correct school uniform. The uniform policy is available on the school website. Thank you.
