

Write numbers in chalk / on paper on the floor. When your adult asks you the double or half question stamp on the correct answer!

Write some numbers in chalk on the floor or on the wall and SPLAT the answers with water—you could use a water pistol, spray bottle or a paintbrush.

Play double or half games using things you have at home.

Use a fly swat to SPLAT the answers to half and double questions.

Write double or half answers to your LEGO bricks. When your adult asks you the questions select the correct answer and start building a tower. How many brick can you collect in 1 minute?