Make a pot of objects (your pot should contain between 5 and 20 objects). Write this number in the shape.

Using all the objects each time make sets and write the matching addition calculation. Remember you can make two or three sets.

How many different calculations can you make?